DRAFT - 9 March 1961

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans)

25X1A

SUBJECT: Review of Subsidy and Proprietary Projects to Determine
Extent of Compliance with Administrative Plans

1. One of the general recommendations made by the Inspector General following a study and report on proprietary project (19 August 1961) was that:

"The DD/S make a general review of the extent to which current administrative plans are being complied with, advising the DD/P of the serious cases of noncompliance so that corrective action can be taken."

- 2. I have had the Comptroller and the Audit Staff review their records of all proprietary and subsidy projects to determine the status of compliance with administrative plans and fiscal annexes. This review was made during the period 15 January 28 February 1961, and included the examination of the administrative plans, fiscal annexes, and the expenditure and related records of ______ subsidy and proprietary projects (______ proprietary, and ______ subsidy projects). The records indicated that there was full compliance with the provisions of administrative plans or fiscal annexes in the case of _____ projects examined, and a lack of full compliance on the part of _____ projects.
- 3. Attached as TAB A is a list of the projects which currently have not fully complied with the provisions of administrative plans or fiscal annexes, together with a brief statement indicating the character or extent of noncompliance. As you will note from this list, most of the cases of noncompliance are of a technical rather than a substantive character, and in all cases the exceptions have been reported upon, or are in process of Approved For Release 2002/01/07: CIA-RDP68-00140R000100400026-9
